

Tom Steyer

Politician

Personal Profile:

Tom Steyer, born on June 27, 1957, is a renowned climate investor, businessman, philanthropist, and activist.

He holds a Bachelor's degree from Yale University and an MBA from Stanford University.

As of March 2024, his net worth stands at a notable $2.1 billion, reflecting his successful career and his significant impact on environmental and political spheres.

Notable Roles:

- Co-executive chair of Galvanize Climate Solutions
- Founder of Farallon Capital
- Co-founder of Beneficial State Bank

Political Affiliation:
Democratic Party

Philanthropy:

Signed The Giving Pledge to donate half of his fortune to charity during his lifetime

Achievements

Environmental Advocacy:

- Founded NextGen America, focusing on climate change and progressive positions
- Co-founded Galvanize Climate Solutions, investing in clean energy and decarbonization efforts

PERSONAL LIFE:

- Married to Kat Taylor
 - Father of four children
- Trivia:
- Served on the board of trustees at Stanford University from 2007 to 2017
 - Known for wearing a signature red plaid tie